

Article 1

The Zurich Marató Barcelona is organized by a Promotion Committee made up of four institutions and entities: The City of Barcelona, the Marató de Barcelona Platform, the Catalan Athletics Federation and Barcelona Tourism. The event is coordinated by the Institut Barcelona Esports, and its Executive Organization is carried out by ASO (Amaury Sport Organization) and RPM MKTG. In addition to that, the Zurich Marató Barcelona Senate, a consultative body made up of 24 renowned figures in the world of athletics and the organization of sporting events in Catalunya, will act as an observer of the race and of its organization. The event will take place on Sunday, in a fully urban route.

Article 2

The race is 42,195Km long and is certified by the Catalan Athletics federation through an authorized IAAF commissioner. In the same way, the marathon is under the IAAF road racing regulations. Judges of the RFEA and the FCA will ensure full compliance with the regulations.

Article 3

The race is open to athletes of any nationality, federated or not. In any case, you must be 18 years old on the day of the race. According to the regulations of the RFEA, there will be different classifications, both in male and female categories, according to the year of birth. Each runner participates in the marathon under his/her own responsibility and must present sufficient physical condition to face the race. Participation in ways that do not correspond to this athletics event such as skates, bicycles, electric wheelchairs or handbikes, among others is not allowed.

The race counts with three sports categories for disabilities: wheelchair, visual disability and intellectual disability.

All visual disability people, who want to participate in the race, must register online (in the official website) and they will be the first ones in the start line. To get into the classifications and into the visual disability awards, they must send an email with a copy of the disability card attached to promocioesportiva2@bcn.cat right after registering via online. The guides will run without a chip and must be properly identified and registered. To do so, they have to send all their personal information such as: name, surname, DNI or Passport number, date of birth, phone number and email address to info@zurichmaratobarcelona.es

All intellectual disability people who want to participate in the race must register online (in the official website). To get into the classifications and into the intellectual disability awards, they must send an email to promocioesportiva2@bcn.cat with the copy of the disability card attached right after registering via online.

All people who participate with wheelchair or with the running trolley, must register online (in the official website) and they must be in the start line one hour before the race starts. It's mandatory to send an email to info@zurichmaratobarcelona.es after registering in the website.

The awards for the wheelchairs, visual disabilities and intellectual disabilities categories will always take place as soon as a minimum of 3 athletes complete the race, whether they are men or women. Prizes will be awarded on the same day of the race. You must address yourself to the podium area once the race is finished to find out the first, second and third position.

Article 4

The arbitrator designated by the RFEA will have the final decision before any binding aspect of the race. Judges and auxiliary commissioners of the FCA will support this person. According to the procedure of the IAAF, from the Km 5 and every 5 Km there will be a water station point, as well as in the arrival. Every 5km, from the Km 7,5, there will be a point with water to dip the sponges. Times will be taken in the passage of the half marathon and at the finish line. It is established a maximum time of 6h to complete the race. After this time, the participants who have not finished will be able to continue following the highway code and under their own responsibility.

Article 5
